WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 625 King Street. Alexandria, Va., Oct. 9.—As a result of a fight between a seaman gunner, said to be from Washington, and an Alexandrian during the progress of a game of dootball this afternoon between a team of seaman gunners and the Alexandria Athletic Association, the seaman gunner was badly cut over the shoulders.

It is said that the seaman gunner attempted to drive the Alexandrian from the side lines and the latter took exception to his actions. Words are said to have followed, when a second seaman is said to have appeared on the scene to quell the trouble. About this time, it is charged, the seaman gunner produced a blackjack, and as he did so the Alexandrian whipped out a knife and wielded it with considerable dexterity on the shoulders of his antagonist.

At the conclusion of the game, it is alleged, that a free-for-all fight followed among a number of spectators from Washington and Alexandria, and it is claimed that blows were rained thick and fast among the participants who were as badly mixed as a disorganized football team. The combatants shortly for burial.

SHAFT afterward separated and left for their respective homes. The police are making an investigation.

His assailants have not yet been apprehended, although the police are working on the case. McLane was walking along that thoroughfare when he was attacked. He made a game fight, but was quickly overpowered by the men, who left him lying on the pavement. Shortly after the assault McLane appeared at police headquarters and made a resort of the case. He was not certain whether there were three or four men in the crowd. McLane was unable to ascribe any cause for the assault. His shirt was torn and his collar was gone, while the front of his Electric Light Is to The Home What Sauce Is to Pudding.

It is the finishing touch. It improves the appearance of everything in the home.

Without it, the money spent in beautifying the home is a poor

With Electric Light the decorations of the home last very much longer. And when the walls and ceilings need redecorating it is because the paper is worn out, not burned or blackened, as is the case where open-flame illuminants are used. Let us tell you more about it.
